14th Annual HUDSON JAZZWORKS CONCERT FREE LIVE STREAM from HUDSON HALL

Jul 30, 2020

HUDSON – Hudson Hall and Hudson Jazzworks (HJW) invite jazz fans around the globe to enjoy an afternoon at Hudson Hall from the comfort of their own homes with the free, live-streamed Hudson Jazz Workshop Concert on Sunday, August 9 at 4 p.m. The HJW concert features four workshop participants performing alongside co-directors, pianist Armen Donelian and saxophonist Marc Mommaas, with special guest artist and Hudson Jazz Festival favorite, bassist Jay Anderson. The concert is the culminating event of a series of events taking place as part of the 14th Annual 2020 Hudson Jazz Workshop, including a two-day Online Composers Forum (Friday and Saturday) and an Online Masterclass with Jay Anderson (Sunday). Streaming links for Sunday's 4 p.m. concert will be posted at hudsonjazzworks.org and hudsonhall.org.

We thank you and are grateful for your support.

Bassist/composer Jay Anderson is among the most versatile and respected jazz artists performing today. Jay is a Professor of Jazz Bass Studies at the Manhattan School of Music in New York City and currently co-leads the critically acclaimed group BANN featuring Seamus Blake, Oz Noy, and Adam Nussbaum.

Pianist Armen Donelian graduated from Columbia University and the Westchester Conservatory of Music. Armen's Grammy-nominated compositions exhibit Classical, Jazz and Middle Eastern influences and appear on 13 acclaimed albums for the Sunnyside, Odin, Atlas and Playscape record labels. A Fulbright Senior Scholar and National Endowment for the Arts Fellow, Armen has taught for 34 years in The New School Jazz Program and 23 years in the William Paterson University Department of Music. His widely read books on piano pedagogy and ear training have been translated into three languages. Armen lectures and performs internationally at leading academies and concert venues and curated the 2018-2020 Hudson Jazz Festival.

Saxophonist Marc Mommaas is a Cum Laude graduate of Manhattan School of Music (MSM). A William Borden Award recipient, Marc is a frequent lecturer at MSM, New York University, William Paterson University, Rhythmic Music Conservatory (Denmark) and the Conservatory of Amsterdam. Marc co-directs both Hudson Jazzworks and the New York Jazz Workshop. He is a faculty member of The New School Jazz Program, leads two celebrated bands (Global Motion and Landmarc) and composes innovative works featured on Global Motion, Balance and Landmarc (all on Sunnyside Records).

Armen and Marc met in 2000 and immediately established a personal chemistry that is at the heart of their music making. For 19 years, they have performed their original compositions and standard repertoire recorded on their critically acclaimed Sunnyside duo CD, All Or Nothing At All.

Hudson Hall is a cultural beacon in the Hudson Valley, offering a dynamic year-round schedule of music, theater, dance, literature, workshops for youth and adults, as well as family programs and large-scale community events such as Winter Walk. Located in a historic landmark that houses New York State's oldest surviving theater, Hudson Hall underwent a full restoration and reopened to the public in April 2017 for the first time in over 55 years. The newly restored Hudson Hall reflects Hudson's rich history in a modern facility that welcomes residents and visitors from throughout our local community, across the nation, and around the globe.
